

Integrated Pension Services Combines Forces with Friedman LLP's Benefits 21

Boston, MA – July 8, 2021 – Integrated Pension Services \(IPS\) the retirement and pension services arm of Integrated Partners, announced today that it has acquired Benefits 21, Friedman LLP's Pension Administration Services Group. Friedman LLP is one of the largest and most well-regarded certified public accountant (CPA) firms.

Through this transaction, IPS cements its position as a leader in pension services. For more than 40 years, IPS has been providing expert advisory and administration services in the employee-sponsored retirement plan industry and has become a forerunner in retirement planning.

"With the addition of Benefits 21, we are able to further scale our pension administration business and bring our services to clients in a wider geographic footprint," said Will Hackler, IPS' Director of Retirement Services.

Friedman has been providing accounting, tax and business consulting services to private and public companies since 1924. Headquartered in Manhattan, Friedman has locations on the East and West Coast of the United States as well as in China.

"Our decision to form a strategic alliance with Integrated Pension Services was based on their depth of knowledge in the industry and the superior level of support they give clients," said Harriet Greenberg, CPA, PFS, co-managing partner of Friedman. "Friedman's goal is always to align ourselves with the best and the brightest."
